

Collection of Antique Lighting – Sat. Morning, May 31, 2008

Lot #	Description
268	Nonesuch and patriotic advertising lantern
269	1. Sandwich whale oil lamp - pressed flattened sawtooth diamond lamp with pressed hexagonal base; pewter top; correct burner; 10 1/2" ht; CA. 1840 - 1855, very fine condition. 2. Sandwich whale oil lamp pressed sawtooth diamond pattern with pressed hexagonal base. original burner and collar in pewter CA. 1840
270	1. Blown molded hand lamp with applied handle, original pewter collar and original camphene burner, great condition - New England Glass Co. 1865. 2. Camphene lamp with applied handle, CA. 1840 (as is)
271	Sandwich pressed glass "Sparking" lamp with original camphene burner CA. 1850 - 65
272	Sandwich whale oil lamp - free blown cylindrical font; pressed base and internal wafer, original pewter burner
273	Sandwich free blown conical lamp with pressed cut - corner base; original whale oil burner; CA. 1828 - 1835
274	1. Sandwich pressed "Shield and Stars" lamp with pressed square base; CA. 1860 - 1875 some minor chips in base. 2. Sandwich pressed "Shield and Stars" lamp with pressed "baroque" milk glass base; CA. 1860 - 1873
275	Pair of Sandwich candlesticks CA> 1840 - 1860; usual base roughness and heat checks in sockets
276	1. Sandwich whale oil lamp with pressed octagonal paneled font and pressed hexagonal base; 9" ht X 2 3/4" dia. Font; 4 1/4" dia. Base; original pewter burner; CA. 1850; excellent working condition 2. Sandwich whale oil lamp with pressed octagonal standard and square base; original burner CA. 1840 - 1860
277	1. Sandwich whale oil lamp with blown molded paneled font and pressed hexagonal base; pewter collar and burner, CA. 1840 - 1850. 2. Blown mold whale oil lamp by Many Glassworks CA. 1835- 1870, base shows slag marks and marks in making. 3. Al glass pedestal oil lamp; blown in mold; beehive font. CA. 1870
278	Folding , pocket lantern - all original; pat. Dated; with old candle and sulfur matches

Collection of Antique Lighting - Saturday Morning, May 31, 2008

- 279 Convex Reflector lantern; A small lantern with convex reflectors (long worn off) and a hinged bottom, side windows of common window glass. Dead flame burner. 1858 - 1875 by Diez and other manuf., all original, very rare
- 280 1. Petticoat lamp with filler tube, original whale oil burner, and has a peg in the base for placing in a candle holder. Tin (Japanned or painted) 19th Cent. 2. Petticoat /Peg lamp in original lacquer, very rare 3 - pipe whale oil burner
- 281 1. Peg lamp with original camphene burner and caps CA. 1865. 2. Sandwich glass peg lamp with pewter collar and whale oil burner; CA. 1860. 3. Sandwich blown molded peg lamp; ten panels; original pewter collar and burner CA. 1840 - 1860.
- 282 1. Sandwich whale oil lamp; pressed inverted diamond font and pressed hexagonal base. Correct camphene burner, CA. 1855 - 1870 excellent condition. 2. Sandwich pressed flattened saw tooth cylindrical whale oil lamp with pressed hexagonal base, original pewter collar and burner CA. 1840 - 1855, very good condition.
- 283 Sandwich free blown lamp with pressed base, pewter collar, burner and caps, CA. 1830 - 1840
- 284 Sandwich pressed prism and crescent pattern whale oil lamp with pressed hexagonal base. Brass collar with correct camphene burner; CA. 1840 - 1860
- 285 1. New England Glass CO. whale oil lamp ; three mold font with pressed circular base. Font has waffle and thumbprint or "printies" pattern; original burner, CA. 1840 - 1870. 2. Pittsburg Glass pressed leaf and concave whale oil lamp with pressed hexagonal base; original pewter collar and burner; CA. 1840 - 1860, excellent condition
- 286 1. Sandwich whale oil lamp with pressed octagonal standard square base, octagonal font and original pewter collar and whale oil burner. 2. Sandwich blown molded paneled whale oil lamp with pressed square base; CA. 1840 - 1860. Original camphene burner
- 287 19th Century oil lamp by New England Glass CO. - molded glass; original single tube camphene burner
- 288 Sandwich blown molded whale oil lamp with pressed hexagonal base, rare small size

Collection of Antique Lighting - Saturday Morning, May 31, 2008

- 289 Cosmo lamp with original nutmeg burner; very good condition
- 290 Miniature lamp "Nellie Bly" (S - 219), milk glass base and clear glass shade; upper part of shade is painted to resemble frosting and decorated to match base
- 291 Satin glass lamp - great blue color; American origin CA. 1875 with later imported burner; proof condition
- 292 1. Sandwich free blown cut hand lamp with applied handle and original brass collar and whale oil burner; CA. 1828 - 1835, mint condition. 2. Sandwich blown molded lyre hand lamp with original pewter collar and whale oil burner; CA. 1840 - 1870, proof condition. Sandwich blown molded elongated loop hand lamp; with six loops and an excellent example of a Childs size lamp adapted to adult; CA. 1840 - 1860, all original
- 293 Pair of composite lamps - milk glass, saucer base; pressed glass fonts; signed "pat. Sep. 29th 1868" very rare
- 294 1. Atterbury screw socket oil lamp; Chapman (with diamond) pattern font; opaque glass base - Pat. 29 Sept. 1868. 2. Kerosene or "coin oil" lamp with bull's eye with Fleur - De - Lys pattern; pressed font with reeded brass standard and marble base, CA. 1850 - 1860. This lamp pattern was made in Sandwich and several other glass factories
- 295 1. Composition Oil Lamp - zig - zag and diamond font combined with an opaque white decorated glass stem. Period chimney with owl and moon transfer. 2. Figure Stem Lamp "John" - carefully detailed in relaxed hunting scene stance. All original with pewter covered frosted font; Brass collar and connector and metal base. MacBeth, pearl chimney Ca. 1870
- 296 1. Tole whale oil peg/table lamp; green paint under black. 19th C, also called "Petti - coast" lamp. 2. Tin whale oil peg lamp; good form; well made; very rare
- 297 Jewelry/ barbers lamp with original burner and cap. Pat. Sept 14, 1880
- 298 1. Tin double wick funnel - shaped, whale oil hand lamp with saucer base. Unusual long tube burner; CA. 1840 - 1850. A very rare and choice specimen. 2. Tin single burner whale oil lamp; 19th C. very good original condition
- 299 Pair of miniature street light lamps - Tin; CA. 1860 - 70; with original burners and colored glass panes

Collection of Antique Lighting - Saturday Morning, May 31, 2008

- 300 Tin whale oil lamp in original, untouched condition from a home in York, Maine
- 301 Hurricane lantern mfg. By Hurricane Lantern CO. NY Pat dated 24 Dec. 1867 and April 1864 Rare
- 302
- 303 1. Pewter finger lamp - American C. 1840. 2. Pewter whale oil lamp; early from, not marked, probable English, correct burner
- 304 Pewter whale oil lamp; English; good working condition, original pewter burner
- 305 Pewter whale oil lamp, signed Smith & Co.; The pewter, Smith & Co. has been credited with superior craftsmanship and design. References list Smith & Co. in both Conn. And Penn. CA. 1830 - 1840 Lamps with this mark are rare
- 306 1. Pewter whale oil lamp; English, mid 19th C. unmarked. 2. Pewter whale oil lamp with original camphene burner and caps., unsigned; 3. Pewter whale oil lamp; English, mid 19th C., unmarked
- 307 Pewter whale oil lamp; American; from the Grace Stammers collection, CA. 1840. 2. Pewter hand lamp with original camphene burner and pewter ca. late 18th C
- 308 Signed "Woodward patent pat. April 5, 1864" brass lantern was offered in two sizes, both are rare! Good condition - some cracks in top
- 309 19th C. brass railroad lantern; original brass font and whale oil burner
- 310 Whale oil lantern; a tin lantern with wire protective guard and approx 60% of original lacquered finish. Font and burner are original to the lantern. CA. 1850 - 1860
- 311 Whale oil railroad lantern; all complete and original. Some original finish on ring and protected areas, CA. 1865
- 312 1. Yankee engineer's lantern manufactured 1916 - 1930 by Perkins Lantern CO. 2. Yankee engineer's lantern manufactured by Perkins 1916 - 1930; all original and in excellent working condition

Collection of Antique Lighting - Saturday Morning, May 31, 2008

- 313 Brass conductor's lantern; unmarked, but can be identified as one of eight styles offered by C. T. Ham (1887 - 1914) all C. T. Ham lanterns are rare
- 314 Dietz NO. 76 lantern; 1880 - 1886, the earliest examples marked "pat: applied for" and without guard. Very rarely found
- 315 Patented lantern signed "S. Sargent's Sept. 17, 1861" tin lantern; brass font and tops; all in good working condition
- 316 Whale oil railroad lantern; tin construction in old paint, unique side vent on side of original font, hole in top of ring provides for hanging on a hook when not in use. CA. 1845 - 1850
- 317 A very rare patented lantern signed "E. F. Parkers patents 1853 & 1955, Boston Mass" all original glass, font and burner. This lantern is earlier than "Proctor" lantern, but very nearly the same
- 318 19th Century tin railroad lantern; old black paint over original lacquer finish, free blown glass signal oil burner, etched initials "C. R. R. " (Concord Rail Road) rare New Hampshire piece
- 319 Early railroad lantern; tin lantern with 50% original black paint, free blown globe with etched "P. M." unknown line, correct signal oil burner, CA. 1840, very good condition
- 320 Whale oil lantern with bulbous shaped globe; original Japanned lacquered finish, CA. 1840 - 1850, a rare lantern in excellent condition
- 321 Whale oil lantern; manufactured for household use. CA. 1820 - 1850, great condition
- 322 Whale oil lantern; all original and complete; CA. 1860, lantern is in clean excellent working condition
- 323 Whale oil lantern; CA. 1860 - 1865, original font (with original varnish on base) and burner
- 324 Whale oil lantern for domestic use; brass top; original font and burner, working condition CA. 1850
- 325 Very rare whale oil lantern by New England Glass Co. signed and pat. Dated on base "Oct. 21, 1854" all original, brass top

Collection of Antique Lighting - Saturday Morning, May 31, 2008

- 326 Early tin lantern signed "White Star"; this lantern was made by the Star Headlight Lantern Co, Rochester, NY the company was in business for a very short lime. This lantern has been restored due to rarity CA. 1850 - 1852
- 327 1. Boat signal lantern manufactured by Perkins Marine Lamp 1915 - 1930; several sizes offered (6" - 12") galvanized steel, painted black, dead flame burner. 2. Boat signal lantern by Perkins 1916 - 1939; all brass, painted black, bull's eye dead flame. as found (unused) in storeroom of Peavey's Hardware, Portsmouth NH
- 328 Bull's eye police lantern 1880 - 1887, original whale oil burner, approximately 70% original black Japanned finish
- 329 Yankee Engineer's lantern by Perkins Marine lamp & Hardware Corp; 1916 - 1930; rare lantern with original globe signed Perko
- 330 Small boat stern or anchor light; brass top, rings and font; galvanized frame, dead flae burner, manufactured by Perkins, CA. 1916 - 1927, all original and in working condition
- 331 1. Victorian kerosene finger lamp 1860 - 1890 by United States Glass CO., Pittsburg, PA. 2. Candle lamp for railroad car compartments and passageways; brass pat. Dated Sept. 10, 1907, all original, mint condition
- 332 Brass student's lamp, signed and pat. Dated on the burner base, "Manhattan Brass CO, N.Y. Pat. May 23, Dec. 25, 1877 - Mar. 20 1879 excellent original condition
- 333 Primitive candle lantern; tin, original glass
- 334 Late 17th C. or early 18th C. miner's lamp; hand engraved and decorated, brass & iron Middle East origin?
- 335
- 336 Betty Lamp, complete with wick support, hook and cover, American CA. 1840
- 337 18th C. brass fluid lamp used with tapers or rush, very fine condition from a home in York, Maine
- 338 1. 18th C. brass candle reflector, very rare in this size. 2. Candle reflector, early 19th C

Collection of Antique Lighting - Saturday Morning, May 31, 2008

- 339 17th C eastern European brass candlestick
- 340 Sticking Tommy, 19th C. miner's candlestick
- 341 Wrought iron rush and candle holder, table top lamp in original base, from the Harding collection CA. 1740 - 1750
- 342 Table rush light, 9" high wrought iron with spring rush holder; CA. 1750 from the Harding collection